

STEP BACK IN TIME AT EL RANCHO DE LAS GOLONDRINAS

There's no better place for a New Mexico wine festival than this old Spanish hacienda named El Rancho de las Golondrinas (Ranch of the Swallows). It was founded in the early 1700's and was an historic paraje, or stopping place, on El Camino Real, the Royal Road to Mexico City. The ranch was an oasis of water and tall grass, a one-day journey to Santa Fe.

See thirty-four historic buildings and visit costumed villagers baking in bee-hive ovens (hornos), carding, spinning and weaving wool, blacksmithing and grinding grain.

Visit the Museum Shop for one-of-a-kind crafts, special gifts and southwest books.

The arts and crafts, food and museum demonstrations will begin at noon on Saturday and Sunday. The New Mexico wineries will provide tasting and sale by the glass and bottle (not to be opened on the premises). Museum exhibits close at 5 pm; the Festival closes at 6 pm both days. Any visitor attending may be asked to provide proof of age.

INFORMATION & DIRECTIONS

Exit 276 off I-25 & follow "Las Golondrinas" signs. Parking is free

334 Los Pinos Road, Santa Fe, New Mexico 87507
www.golondrinas.org * 505-471-2261

For additional information on the Festival
call 505.471.2261
or visit santafewinefestival.com

Design: Cisneros Design

ABOUT WILLIAM ROTSAERT

William Rotsaert, the 2009 Santa Fe Wine Festival poster artist, was born in Bruges, Belgium, a Flemish City of ancient beauty, where Roman, Gothic, Baroque and Renaissance art and architecture converge. He attended the Academy of Fine Arts in Bruges, specializing in old school disciplines such as drawing, oil painting, architectural drawing and graphic art.

William traveled extensively in Europe, and his travels in Spain inspired him to visit the American Southwest, where he was captivated by its land, natural beauty and people. He and his wife decided to move to the Southwest, first to Arizona and then to Santa Fe, where they still live.

The award-winning commercial work of William Rotsaert can be seen in posters, brochures, magazines, covers and billboards. His superb fine art, representing southwestern themes and landscapes, has been shown in New Mexico and Arizona galleries and in a major exhibition in Bruges with his artist father Germain Rotsaert.

William retains his enthusiasm for the American Southwest, and travels frequently through Colorado, Arizona and New Mexico to find inspiration for his art.

16TH ANNUAL

* SANTA FE *

WINE FESTIVAL

AT EL RANCHO DE LAS GOLONDRINAS

JULY 4-5, 2009 NOON TO 6PM

* * * *

Taste the fine wines and meet the vintners from around the state, all in the historic setting of a Spanish colonial ranch and living history museum. Fun for the whole family!

* * * *

NEW MEXICO WINES • GREAT FOOD
ARTS AND CRAFTS • LIVE ENTERTAINMENT

$13 Adult (includes souvenir wine glass)
$5 Youth 13-20 (children under 13 free)

No Pets Please!

FINE NEW MEXICO WINES

These New Mexico wineries invite you to sample their fine wines.

| | |
|----------------------------------|--------------|
| Anasazi Fields Winery | 505.867.3062 |
| Black Mesa Winery | 800.852.6372 |
| Corrales Winery | 505.898.5165 |
| Gruet Winery | 888.857.9463 |
| Guadalupe Vineyards | 505.552.0082 |
| Luna Rossa | 505.544.1160 |
| Matheson Vineyards and Winery . | 505.350.6557 |
| Milagro Vineyards | 505.898.3998 |
| Ponderosa Valley Vineyards . . . | 575.834.7487 |
| Santa Fe Vineyards | 800.852.6372 |
| Southwest Wines | 575.546.9324 |
| Blue Teal Vineyards | |
| DH Lescombes | |
| St. Clair Winery | |
| Tierra Encantada | |
| Vineyards and Winery | 505.764.9463 |
| Tularosa Vineyards | 505.585.2260 |
| Wines of the San Juan | 505.632.0879 |

Sales by the glass, bottle and case.

BEAUTIFUL ARTS & CRAFTS

Visit the many New Mexico arts & crafts and agricultural product booths featuring:

- * Handmade Jewelry
- * Pottery
- * Original Paintings
- * Clothing
- * Wood Work
- * Wine Accessories
- * Gourmet Dips and Salsas
- * Gourmet Cheese
- * Southwest Clothing
- * Photography
- * Herbal Products
- * And much more!

IMPORTANT

Remember, you must be 21 years of age to taste wine, and all wine consumption must be within the Festival grounds. No open containers of any kind will be allowed off the premises. No bottles may be opened at the Festival.

ASK ABOUT OUR DESIGNATED DRIVER PROGRAM.

LIVE ENTERTAINMENT

Our musical line-up will soothe your soul, get your toes tapping and may even get you up to dance!

SATURDAY, JULY 4

- * 12:00 NOON – 2:30 PM
Mariachi Porvenir
- * 3:00 PM – 5:30 PM
Combo Special Featuring Joan Griffen
Blues, Boogie Woogie

SUNDAY, JULY 5

- * 12:00 NOON – 2:30 PM
The Susan Abod Trio
Blues, Jazz, Standards
- * 3:00 PM – 5:30 PM
La Junta
Latin Funk, Hip-Hop, Reggae

DON'T FORGET THE FOOD

There's a little something for everyone. Chili burgers, carnitas, roasted corn, Frito pies, Navajo tacos, burritos, tamales, tortilla wraps, bread & cheese, fresh salads, bakery goods and delicious desserts. Picnic under the towering cottonwoods with food, wine, music and friends.

santafewinefestival.com

Presented in cooperation with New Mexico Wine Country. Additional support provided by Santa Fe Arts Commission, New Mexico Arts, New Mexico Tourism Department, Santa Fe County Lodgers Tax Advisory Board, Santa Fean Magazine and the Santa Fe New Mexican.

